

- Tracks location of suspect using cellular phone anywhere in the United States.
- Determines and maps the cellular tower location nearest to where a suspect is using his cellular phone.
- During live call monitoring, SWAT users can click the Imaging icon to instantly render a map of suspect location for the current call event.
- Maps of call event locations may be rendered during post processing in the Imaging area of Web Playback.
- Users can also render maps of any addresses stored in the Web Playback database.
- Location History Report graphically plots and maps up to 100 suspect locations during a specified time frame.

