

- The XLence Wiretap Administration Recording Server (XWARS) integrates Microsoft Enterprise web solutions with XLence wiretap technologies.

- Provides administration of multichannel wiretap system via web browser.

- Interconnects with wiretap servers for instant update of call details and logging into powerful SQL database.

- Serves surveillance workstations with all post call event playback and details via web browser.

- Offers robust database search engine for fast access of call events.

- Export manager compatible to other non-enterprise databases.

- Charts and graphs of call details powered by Crystal reports at the users finger tips.

- Event imaging capability for mapping cell site location and historical tracking.

- Designed with secure network topology in order to keep sensitive intelligence information safe.

- Scalable platforms to serve stringent Military, Government and law enforcement requisite.

